How you can help.

- By making a cash contribution to fund our operations
- By providing access to technical facilities, such as science laboratories.
- By providing additional prizes for the winners (eg. a computer for gold medal winners in the computer science categories).
- By becoming a coach or judge.
- By referring others who might be able to assist us.

How can we help you?

NYC ACTSO would be pleased to develop partnerships with corporate and other donors which are tailored to the donor's philanthropic concerns. Specifically, the program anticipates that it will be able to generate a substantial amount of favorable publicity for its principal sponsors. Further, by its nature, ACT-SO provides the opportunity for significant personal involvement by donors. In addition to providing funds, a corporate donor could, for instance, recruit coaches from among its workforce. We also welcome the opportunity to expose students so sponsors' businesses through internships, field trips, or other means.
